Summary

So you think WordPress is only for Blogging? I assure you there is a lot you can do with WordPress, you just need a passionate, crazy, WordPress-oholic developer. Hi, I'm Amirhossein Hosseinpour, Web Developer and Web Designer, and a WordPress worm! I'm specialized in the infrastructure and ecosystem of the WordPress platform (including WooCommerce as well), and Love making bugs and spending hours looking for missing semicolon! I've developed over hundreds of plugins and surely made many contribution to Open-source projects like WordPress and other software in various platforms, which are all hosted/listed in either my GitHub account or Official WordPress Plugins Directory or somewhere else out there, I really didn't have much time putting them all together in one place but I successfully managed to set <https://hpv.im> up and list some of my really most important links there. So! check it out.

My skills:

=====
